

Kensington Community Primary School Newsletter

10th February 2025—14th February 2025

Dear parents and carers,

This week's assembly theme was about love and the love we can show to our families and friends. The children listened carefully and thought about the ways they can show people how much they love them.

Year 5 and 6 both had Primary Inspirations this week. Where they think about business and working collaboratively. Year 5 were café owners and had to come up with a full menu with a pricing structure and also think carefully about their profit margins. The children worked with children from across the year group and not just those in their class. Year 6's project was Battle of the Bands. The children were given different roles such as tour manager, budget controller, creative director and merchandise designer. They had to organise a tour and cost it out. The children worked hard to see which band had the best outcomes.

Of course, we had 3 discos this week and most of the children in our school were able to attend. Thank you to the PCTA for their organisation and also to the staff who were being DJ for the session. I hope that the children enjoyed their dancing and snack.

On Wednesday the Police came to see our Reception and Nursery children. They came because the children are learning about people who help us. It was nice to see them listening carefully and asking some questions. We had hoped the fire service could have come this week as well but unfortunately, they were called to an emergency so they hope to come after half term

This week's whole school attendance figure is 94.19%. This is a tiny dip from the previous week but I'm sure that following the half term holiday everyone will be keen to come to school and enjoy the different things we have planned. Remember please contact school on your first day of absence as soon as possible. Well done to all those children who have been in school, on time, every day this week.

I wish you all a safe and happy holiday and we will see you all at 8.50am on Monday 24th February.
